SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong State University men's and women's tennis teams have each earned the ITA's All-Academic Team honor, announced last week, while five players have earned ITA Scholar-Athlete honors.

The ITA All-Academic Team award is open to any member program that has a cumulative team grade point average of 3.20 or above (on a 4.00 scale). All eligible student-athletes whose names appear on the NCAA, NAIA or Junior/Community College eligibility form and have competed in one or more varsity matches must average into the GPA for the current academic year (including fall 2014 and spring 2015).

This is the eighth year that the Armstrong men's team has earned the honor, and second straight year. The Armstrong women, meanwhile, earn the honor for the 15th time in program history and also for the second straight year.

Individually, three women's and two men's players earned the ITA Scholar-Athlete award. In order to earn ITA Scholar-Athlete status a player must meet the following criteria: 1.) be a varsity letter winner, 2.) have a grade point average of at least 3.50 (on a 4.00 scale) for the current academic year, and 3.) have been enrolled at their present school for at least 2 semesters (including freshman through senior year).

Junior Otakar Lucak and sophomore Damian Okrutny each earned the award for the Armstrong men's team, while senior Clara Perez, junior Carolina Prats-Millan and sophomore Diana Stomlega each earned the award for the Armstrong women's team. Perez and Prats-Millan are ITA Scholar-Athletes for a second straight year.
